

The land speaks.

In wine, it whispers through the vine—stone, sun, and breeze shaping each grape's soul.

A hillside, a riverbed, a patch of ancient soil—these leave their mark in every glass.

In golf, the earth is felt underfoot—the roll of fairways, the bite of wind, the grain of grass.

Each course, like each vineyard, is born of place, no two alike.

Terroir gives wine its voice, golf its character.
It is the unseen hand, turning land into art, and nature into play.

With a love and respect for terroir, we have chosen this selection of wines for their expression of their soil, climate and character of their origin.

Enjoy...

Champagne

Philipponnat, Réserve Perpétuelle, Mareuil-sur-Ay, Champagne, France, NV 190

The Philipponnat Family has been producing Champagne from the same vineyards for over 500 years. In this time, they have crafted a house style that few can match. This cuvee is a blend of many vintages, with some reserve wines dating all the way back to 1946. This wine is a perfect way to begin your meal but works as more than an aperitif and would function as the perfect wine to accompany your entire meal. Look for notes of fresh flowers, candied lime, toasted notes and a honeyed texture. Also available in magnum and double magnum

White Wine

Lucien Crochet, Sancerre, Loire, France, 2023 170

The Family Estate of the Crochet's has tremendously deep ties to the Sancerre region, with generations of the family being pioneers of the Sancerre appellation. This wine is 100% Sauvignon Blanc from their 35 hectares planted mostly in Bue. This wine displays tremendous freshness and intense minerality coupled with citrus fruits and floral notes

Lightfoot & Wolfville, Ancienne Riesling, Nova Scotia, Canada, 2021 110

Lightfoot & Wolfville is an estate located in the Annapolis Valley, they are pioneers of the Nova Scotia wine industry with both co-founders having families that have farmed there for generations. This organic and biodynamic wine is sourced from the finest vineyards on their estate. This is an excellent example of cool climate Riesling, showing honeycomb and golden apple with a rich texture that make it a fantastic food wine

Domaine Buisson Charles, Vielle Vignes, Meursault, France, 2023 420

Buisson Charles is by many accounts one of the finest producers of Chardonnay in Burgundy. This small estate produces wine from six parcels located mostly around Meursault. This cuvee sources fruit from some of the oldest vines on their property and this in turn creates a wine with massive depth of flavour and concentration. This wine has a rich texture combined with beautifully integrated oak and notes of vanilla, white peach and fresh white flowers. A wine that will be sure to become a new favourite

Cascina Penna-Currado, Derthona Colli Tortonesi, Timorasso, Piedmont, Italy, 2024 200

A more recent project by the Vietti Family who have generations of experience producing wine in Piedmont. With this wine they seek to reintroduce the Timorasso grape to the world and highlight its incredible flavour and potential. This wine has distinctive acidity, coupled with notes of yellow fruit, chamomile and subtle tropical flavours

Catena Zapata, Adrianna Vineyard, White Stones Chardonnay, Uco Valley, Argentina, 2021 400

By many accounts the Adrianna Vineyard produces the finest wines in all of Argentina. Originally planted by Nicolas Catena Zapata, the wines produced here rival some of the greatest wines on the planet. The White Stones Chardonnay planted at over 4,700 feet of elevation is a wine that contains flavours like white stone, pear apple and mineral notes with a generous texture reminiscent of Grand Cru White Burgundy

Red Wines

- Marcel Lapierre, Morgon, (Gamay Noir), Beaujolais, France, 2024 180
Marcel Lapierre is one of the most important producers to ever make wine in Beaujolais. As part of the Gang of Four he helped to pioneer the Cru Beaujolais movement and fought to raise awareness of the serious wines produced not in the Beaujolais Nouveau style. This wine is reminiscent of the reds of Burgundy, with rich brooding fruit character, paired with silky texture, subtle structure and a complex finish. This is the perfect wine for any occasion.
- Domaine Geantet Pansiot, Gevrey Chambertin, Vieilles Vignes, Burgundy, France, 2021 390
Gevrey Chambertin has been an appellation sought after by those who appreciate fine wine for centuries now. The wines display the highest pinnacle of the Pinot Noir grape. This old vine example from Domaine Geantet Pansiot who have been producing wines since 1954 shows a classic example of why Gevrey Chambertin holds the reputation that it has. This wine shows strawberry, violet, with notes of lavender, and a savoury character
- Felton Road, Bannockburn Pinot Noir, Central Otago, New Zealand, 2024 230
Since 2002 Felton Road has been consistently producing some of the best examples of Pinot Noir from New Zealand, and the Bannockburn is no exception. This Pinot Noir expresses notes of black cherry, warming spices and chocolate, in addition to a smooth velvety texture
- Battle Creek, Willamette Valley, Oregon, USA, 2017 300
Located within the Willamette Valley, a region that many consider to be the highest example of New World Pinot, Battle Creek has been making terroir driven examples of Pinot Noir for over 20 years. Under winemaker Sarah Cabot's tutelage, this bottling shows deep flavours of cranberry, crushed violet, raspberry, and spice on the palate. The wine is complimented by bright acidity and structured tannin. This wine will make you a fan of Oregon Pinot Noir
- Giuseppe Quintarelli, Ca Del Merlo (Corvina Blend), Veneto, Italy, 2017 600
The late Giuseppe Quintarelli is widely considered to be the father of Amarone, and one of the greatest winemakers that Italy has ever seen. This wine named "The House of the Blackbird" is a mysterious wine that looks to both tradition as well as the future. Combining 85% classic Valpolicella grapes combined with grapes like Cabernet Franc, and Cabernet Sauvignon. This wine unfolds with intense aromas of sour cherry, pomegranate, and black cherry, punctuated with dried herbs, and a velvet like texture with intense structure. This wine will have you eager to try any of the estates wines
- Produttori del Barbaresco, Pora, Barbaresco, Piedmont, Italy, 2020 250
Established in 1958, Produttori del Barbaresco is a cooperative that has grown immensely in its time to both widespread commercial and critical success. Working only with the Nebbiolo grape this expression shows the terroir of the Pora Cru. This wine is filled with tart cherry flavours, complimented by aromas of black truffle and dried herbs. A fantastic wine that pairs with almost any dish

Red Wines

Podere Grattamacco, Bolgheri Superiore, Cabernet Sauvignon Blend, Bolgheri Superiore, Italy, 2021 Podere Grattamacco is the second oldest estate in Bolgheri, and helped to globalize the growth of international grapes in the Tuscan Hills. This Cabernet Sauvignon dominant blend showcases the ideal growing conditions of the region and the pinnacle of Italian Cabernet. This wine shows black cherry, well integrated oak and subtle herb character. There are rich bramble like fruits and savoury almost almost notes hiding between the complexities of the flavours. This wine is a perfect representation of the region and the style widely known as "SuperTuscan"	470
Granja Nuestra Señora de Remelluri, Rioja Reserva, Spain, 2017 Telmo Rodriguez is one of the greatest modern winemakers, not only within Spain but the entire globe. This flagship wine is sourced from the three valleys surrounding the winery. This Tempranillo dominant blend is aged for 17 months in barrel and shows earthy red fruits, dark plums, layered with fine tannin, vanilla and sweet liquorice. A perfect wine to see the growth of the estate as well as the region as a whole	270
Heitz Cellars, Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, California, USA, 2017 Heitz Cellars, Martha's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon, Oakville, Napa Valley, California, USA, 2016 Heitz Cellars, Lot C-91 Cabernet Sauvignon, Oakville, Napa Valley, California, USA 2016 Heitz is a name that has been synonymous with the peak of Napa Valley since the estate's inception in 1961. Joe Heitz pioneered Napa Valley's modern era with his diligence in both the cellar and the vineyard. To this day Heitz produces some of the finest wines produced in Napa Valley. Whether it is their Napa Valley Cabernet, experimental Lot C-91, or their top wine the long-produced Martha's Vineyard sourced from arguably the best vineyard in California, all of their wines show incredible depth, concentration and balance. You would find it difficult to find a higher quality Napa Valley Estate	340 1,400 530
Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, S.L.V, Stag's Leap District, Napa Valley, California, USA, 2005 Stag's Leap Wine Cellars was catapulted into international acclaim after its victory over the blue blood estates of Bordeaux in the Iconic Judgement of Paris. In the 50 years since they have only refined their wines. This wine presents dark fruit, and floral aromas, paired with notes of rosemary and black truffle. Its time in bottle has added notes of spiced vanilla and cocoa that blend to make it a perfect representation of the Stag's Leap District	1,160
Domaine de la Romanée-Conti Échézeaux Grand Cru., Cote de Nuits, Burgundy, France, 2012 When speaking about Burgundy there is one Domaine that stands above the rest. a Domaine that for hundreds of years has been producing wines from the best sites in all of France. Once managed by the Prince of Conti. This Domaine consistently produces the pinnacle of Pinot Noir produced anywhere on the planet. The 2012 is no exception, concentration and depth of flavour that will stay with you for the rest of your days. There is no alternative to Domaine de la Romanee-Conti, and those who have had the pleasure of tasting it understand why it is so sought after	9,000
